

Keys to Practicing Criminal Law in Federal Court

Presented in cooperation with the NJSBA Criminal Law Section, the NJSBA Federal Practice & Procedure Section, the NJSBA Senior Lawyers Special Committee and the Association of the Federal Bar of New Jersey

Criminal practice in federal court is different than state court. Distinct federal procedures and a venue for different types of cases require different tools and strategies to successfully present your cases in federal court. Join one of New Jersey's leading criminal law practitioners, Gerald Krovatin, Esq., as he heads a discussion on investigation of cases in federal court, federal sentencing, plus a special judicial roundtable to address questions such as:

- What is the purpose of the initial appearance and how does that differ from arraignment?
  - What is an effective or successful bail package?
  - What is Brady or Giglio or Jencks Act material?
  - What is the difference between a trial subpoena and a grand jury subpoena?
  - How are criminal motions different from civil motions?
  - What is a suppression motion and is it ever too late to bring one?
  - How do you conduct jury selection in your courtroom??
- ....and more!

In one morning, our panel of practitioners and judges will present different approaches and judicial perspective for handling criminal matters in federal court. An unprecedented opportunity to develop your skills for presenting these cases in federal court!
