curtailed. In addition, this pandemic impedes the ability of Americans to work and provide for their families. This directly impacts the financial well-being of individuals, families, and businesses. Therefore, as part of a broader federal government effort, the Secretary of HUD is authorizing a moratorium on foreclosures. Furthermore, Americans have been asked to remain in their homes to stem the tide of COVID-19. To ensure families are not displaced during this critical period, the Secretary of HUD is also authorizing a moratorium on evictions for FHA-insured properties.

Moratorium on Foreclosures and Evictions and Extension of Deadlines

Properties secured by FHA-insured Single Family mortgages are subject to a moratorium on foreclosure for a period of 60 days. The moratorium applies to the initiation of foreclosures and to the completion of foreclosures in process.

Similarly, evictions of persons from properties secured by FHA-insured Single Family mortgages are also suspended for a period of 60 days.

In addition, deadlines of the first legal action and reasonable diligence timelines are extended by 60 days.
